

N.C. JINDAL PUBLIC SCHOOL

PUNJABI BAGH, NEW DELHI

PROSPECTUS

2025-26

INTRODUCTION

Established in the year 1966 by Net Ram Chandrawali Devi Jindal Charitable Trust, N.C. Jindal Public School meets the educational needs of the children in the West Zone of Delhi, providing them a safe, caring and supportive environment for their holistic development. We are committed to high quality education embedded in the core values of inclusivity, integrity, respect and responsibility.

During the span of 58 years, the school has carved a niche as an institution of excellence in the fields of academics, games, sports, cultural and literary activities at the national and international level.

The school is affiliated to the Central Board of Secondary Education, New Delhi and recognized by the Directorate of Education, Government of Delhi, GNCT. The school offers educational opportunities to learners from Pre-school to Class XII.

The school lays strong emphasis on Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE), providing a conducive environment for physical, cognitive, social, emotional and ethical development of children. In consonance with NEP 2020, we encourage a play-based pedagogy that focuses on experiential and joyful learning, enabling children to explore, experiment, and develop critical thinking skills.

School Vision

The vision of the school is to provide quality education in a dynamic and vibrant culture that promotes overall growth and development of children who are empowered and equipped with 21st Century skills and competencies to navigate through the challenges of the new world and make meaningful contributions at the national and global level.

We Uphold...

SCHOOL REPORTS

Students of NC Jindal Public School, Punjabi Bagh, celebrate house function

The students of Jawahar House of NC Jindal Public School, Punjabi Bagh, celebrated their house function titled 'AI Rev', a cultural extravaganza, in the institute's hall. The chief guest for the event was IPS officer Rishi Pal (retired), joint commissioner of police, New Delhi.

The event witnessed the presence of Handball Federation of India president Yogesh Mehta, Rajesh Chhabra, Vipin Paricha, and proud parents.

The event commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp and recital of the Sanskrit shlokas. In his welcome address, school principal Deepak Dua asserted that the teachers as facilitators are committed to contribute constructively to the learning experiences of the messengers of the future. The chief guest shared that if the youth of our country are nurtured with love, right guidance & compassion, then they will certainly become the global players. Jawahar House captain Apaksha

The event showed the kaleidoscopic presentation of a journey into the AI world

Khurana (Class 10A) apprised the audience of remarkable achievements of students from different houses in intra & inter-school events.

'AI-Rev' showcased the kaleidoscopic presentation of a journey into the world of artificial intelligence (AI). Games, communication, and health issues were showcased by the tiny tots through a fashion show, a skit, and a foot-tapping dance.

Students presented a stimulating dance performance 'Chandraayan', symbolizing not just the advancement of space research but also convergence of hard work, dedication, and vision to reach new heights.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Jawahar House wardens Harvinder Kaur (senior wing) and Charu Kataria (junior wing). The function concluded with the national anthem.

NC Jindal conducts student awards ceremony

NC Jindal Public School, Punjabi Bagh held the best student award ceremony for the primary and senior school. The ceremony highlighted the importance of hard work, dedication, and positive contribution to school life. The importance of regularity in academic success was reaffirmed by recognising the students achieving 100% attendance in the academic session 2023-24. The school playground resonated with thunderous applause as each winner walked up to the stage with pride to receive the honour. Harshit of class XI-C and Manyi Tyagi of class V-B were felicitated with all round best student award from the senior and junior school respectively. The ceremony concluded with the principal's message, urging all students to continue striving for excellence.
